Tips on Leading Your Children Through the Bible Stories and Scripture Memorization:

Bible Story:

- Read the story using the Gospel Story Bible (this is the version they read from during Sunday School). This would be a great resource to purchase as we hope to use this curriculum for the next several years.
- It may be helpful to read the story beforehand for yourself using your own Bible. This will help you to know the context and details of the story that the book does not cover. The corresponding Scripture portions can be found within each chapter.
- Ask questions about the story using the “Let’s Talk About It” section in the book.
- Each lesson ends with a portion that explains how the story leads us to Jesus. Be sure to highlight and emphasize the connection.
- Don’t hesitate to reread the same story several times during the week. Try focusing on a different aspect of the story each time.

Scripture Memorization:

- There are two verses listed for each month. Depending on the age of your child, you may choose to memorize just one or both of the verses each month.
- Be sure to explain the verse as you help your child memorize. Our hope is that our children will not only know the Bible, but also believe and live according to it. As you’re helping them to memorize, take time to explain the Scriptures in a way they can better understand.
- Repetition over time works best. Saying a verse 14 times in one day is not as helpful as saying it once a day for 14 days. Successful scripture memorization requires repetition over a long time period. As you keep learning new verses, also be willing to go back to previous verses.
- Memorize the verse numbers. This will help your children as they learn to differentiate between Old Testament and New Testament passages. It may also help to open up to the verse in a Bible as you memorize so that they become more familiar with finding books in the Bible.
- Hang up the verse around the house. Whether your child can read or not, hanging the month’s verse on the refrigerator, in the bathroom, or near their bed will serve as a trigger for you to discuss and continue working on memorizing the verse.
- Memorize the verse along with your child. This is a great opportunity for you to grow in your own love for God’s Word while leading your family.
